4. Deputy Yates Report – absent

New Business:

5. Town Council Vacancy - in accordance with Utah Code 20A-1-510 we interview the one potential candidate, April Litchford, to fill the town council position vacancy previously held by Jacob Rees. Mayor Kendrick welcomed April Litchford and questions were asked by the council. April said she is interested in the future of the town as far as growth, businesses, etc. and would be very interested in serving the town of Deweyville. Mayor Kendrick informed her that she would let her know at a future date if she would be the one to fill this vacancy.

6. Website update/revision - Council Member Taylor who is the current town web master would like to find a cheaper and a more user friendly website for the town. Our current web is not a secure site. She has researched other programs and would like to suggest the town use Dan Taylor to produce and maintain a new web program for the town along with the help of Council Member Carolyn Taylor. The council agrees to pursue these new interests.

7. Report from Planning & Zoning - Mayor Kendrick presented a contract with John Janson to start the revision process of updating the current Deweyville Land Management Code Book. Council Member Taylor provided the council with the goings on of the last P & Z Meeting.

Public Comments:

- park trees look nice now they are trimmed and how well area was cleaned up

Council Member Reports:

8. Lesley Kendrick – State of Utah has accepted and approved our 2021 Budget. Accountant, Matt Regen will be coming to update town Quickbook program and categories to better coincide with the State Report making it easier to compile information.

9. Nate Spackman – all is good.

10. Jared Doman – met with Mt. States Supply for new filters for pump watering system. Company also recommended a variable drive for the pump motor. He is looking into a slurry seal for the black top on the walking trail and the question arose about cracks in the cemetery roads as well.

11. Carolyn Taylor – nothing more to add at this time.

Council Member Nate Spackman made motion to adjourn tonight's meeting. Council Member Carolyn Taylor seconded the motion. Motion passes. All approved.
